Releasing the Genius®

Welcome to the Releasing the Genius Community!

For over 30 years, our mission—"To promote co-operation, inspire confidence, and release the genius in every child"—has united educators, parents, and students in creating future leaders through a high standard of education. Spirit of Math is challenging, requires commitment, and it works.

Our students' success comes from the combined effort of hardworking students, supportive parents, and dedicated campuses. As part of this community, families have access to a range of Spirit of Math tools designed to enrich and elevate the learning experience.

Tuition Includes Classes and All of the Following:

Accessible Teachers
Parents have access to teachers after class, by phone, or email for additional help.

Homework Help
Extra support to help students complete and understand weekly homework.

Parent Involvement
All Spirit of Math parents are allowed (and encouraged!) to observe and sit in classes.

Genius Drills™ App
Free access to our original drills app available on iOS or online.

Online Learning Platform
Short, guided lesson videos for reviewing concepts at home on Brightspace.

Extra Drills
Additional practice sheets to strengthen key skills outside of class.

Free Contest Entry
Complimentary access to the Spirit of Math and CNML contests.

Microsoft 365 Subscription
Full access to Microsoft tools like Word, Excel, and OneNote for schoolwork.
